Council quits battle to rescue post office

COUNCILLORS have given up their fight to save Chalkstone estate's post office.

Members of Haverhill Town Council went into private session at their meeting on Tuesday night to study trading figures they had requested from the Post Office about the site.

A petition has been launched to save the Chalkstone post office, which is one of seven in west Suffolk earmarked for closure. The council had been considering some form of financial contribution to keep it open.

But after the meeting, a statement released by councillors said: "Haverhill Town Council has considered all options available to it in an attempt to retain the Post Office facilities on the Chalkstone estate.

"Unfortunately, the Post Office's business model funding requirement is such that the town council cannot justify the level of subsidy."

Gordon Mussett, town clerk, said councillors had "reluctantly" decided they had gone as far as they could to keep the post office open.

He could not reveal the confidential figures provided by the Post Office, but said they showed the charge made to operate the site, combined with the return percentages on sales, meant it was not financially viable.

He said: "They were very reluctant to accept it and the Post Office is definitely the villain. "Our response to consultation was along the same lines as the borough council's comments – although it is only a mile to the main post office it is down a hill and difficult to get to. Also, is the shop going to remain viable without the post office?"

Meanwhile, St Edmundsbury Borough Council leader Cllr John Griffiths has attacked the Post Office and Royal Mail after his letter of protest about poor consultation procedures over the post office closures ended up being sent to America – then returned as undeliverable.

He admitted the incident was "quite amusing", but said it reflected general inefficiency in the postal service and the lack of concern about genuine comments about the proposed closures raised by councils and members of the public.

Cllr Griffiths said: "A lot of people went to a lot of trouble to respond to the consultation.

"We said that while we could probably understand why four out of the seven proposed offices might close, but for three of them – including Haverhill – we put forward a whole bundle of reasons why we thought they should reconsider.

"They simply wrote back ignoring all the points we raised and said they were going to do what they said and close all the post offices.

Hospice goes green to stay in the black

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

AS THE Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal continues to attract generous donations, the hospice is keen to show off its green credentials with the jumbo load of goods it recycles.

St Nicholas Hospice anticipates it will recycle a staggering 366 tons of donated goods, approximately equivalent to 80 adult elephants, as well as 76 tons of re-usable items, this coming year.

The huge amount of goods, which without St Nicholas's green awareness would have ended up in landfill sites, will be given a second life through links with recycling firms. As well as making a positive environmental impact, the efforts will raise much-needed funds for the organisation.

Most people are aware that the hospice has shops in Haverhill, Newmarket, Mildenhall, Bury St Edmunds, Sudbury, Brandon and Thetford, but may not be aware of the central retail warehouse in Bury St Edmunds where donated goods are sorted.

Items which cannot be sold in the shops because of trading legislation are recycled.

Goods are also sold on Ebay at <http://stores.ebay.co.uk/St-Nicholas-Hospice-Retail> Simon Dawkins, retail manager, said "Due to strict retail laws, items have to reach certain regulations before we can sell them.

■ CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME... Bev Pepper, temporary warehouse manager, with some of the goods destined for the hospice's charity shops which help it to turn one man's trash into another man's treasure. CP

"Any product that doesn't meet standards, and that is eligible, is recycled instead of being disposed of into landfill sites."

St Nicholas Hospice retail department operates from a warehouse at Moreton Hall.

Its eight shops based throughout the hospice area bring in valuable income to meet the £7,000 a day needed to run the hospice service.

They are primarily manned by brilliant and enthusiastic volunteers. New volunteers are always desperately needed in the shops and the warehouse in particular.

Volunteering in this way offers a wonderful way to be part of something special, meet new people, a chance to pick up some great bargains, and to give something back to your local community.

If you feel you can offer a few hours in your local shop or in the central retail centre please, contact the volunteer on (01284) 747610

■ Our appeal is rapidly heading towards the half-way mark of £20,000 in our quest to raised £40,000 for the hospice so that patients in the Haverhill area can receive treatment in their own homes rather than having to travel to Bury St Edmunds.

Don't forget to let us know how you can help our fundraising and get more publicity for your events this summer on (01440) 703891 or email editorial@haverhillweekly.co.uk

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews

Man freed from car

TWO people were taken to hospital after one of them had to be cut out of his vehicle following an early morning crash at Sturmer last Friday.

The road was blocked for some time after emergency services were called to the two-vehicle collision in The Street, Sturmer, at around 6.30am.

The village is just across the Essex border and ambulances from Haverhill and Essex attended the scene, as well as a rapid responder from Cambridge.

The collision involved a black Vauxhall Mariva and a green Volkswagen Polo. One driver was trapped in his vehicle and had to be released by firefighters.

An ambulance service spokesman said a man in his 30s and another man in his 50s were taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge, but neither of them was believed to be seriously injured.

Chance to give blood

BLOOD donor sessions will be held in Haverhill on Thursday, August 7, and Friday, August 29. The sessions will be held in the main hall of Haverhill Arts Centre from 1pm to 3.30pm and from 4.30-7pm. To book an appointment, call 0845 711711.

Plan for salon

A PLANNING application for continued use of a building at Prince of Wales Cottages, Station Road, Haverhill, as a mixed-use hairdressers and beauty salon has been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Paul goes flat out for children's charity

ENERGETIC accountant Paul Donno, pictured right, is ticking off a final box before he hits 40 by taking part in the gruelling London Triathlon event in aid of the Round Table charity Children's Wish.

Mr Donno, who recently stepped down from the role of chairman of Haverhill Chamber of Commerce, will take part in the event on Saturday at the Excel Centre in London.

In 2006 he joined two friends in a cycle ride from London to Paris and raised just over £6,000. This time he hopes to raise £3,000 for the charity.

Mr Donno said: "It is a fantastic charity that grants wishes to children suffering from life-threatening illnesses.

I will be entering Victoria Dock to start the 750m swim and then jumping on my bike for a 20k Cycle Ride, followed by a 5k run just to finish me off.

Takeaway pizza plan is rejected

FAST food giant Domino Pizza has failed to persuade councillors that it could open a shop without disturbing local residents and elderly people in a new, nearby residential home.

Members of Haverhill Town Council's planning committee decided to oppose plans for the shop unit off Apple Acre Road, Haverhill.

When planning consent was originally granted to build the unit, local residents organised a petition to prevent it becoming a Chinese takeaway and its use was restricted to shop use.

Richard Unwin, a surveyor for Domino, attended the planning committee meeting on Tuesday night and said Domino operate a "mainly delivery-based business", with only a few customers collecting their food. Peak time for orders was 6-7pm when 10 to 12 orders would be taken. He claimed no Domino delivery driver had been involved in an accident over the past year.

Environmental health officers at St Edmundsbury Borough Council were happy with air extraction measures at the premises and Mr Unwin believed their application would be approved.

But after reading emails from concerned residents, planning committee members agreed to oppose the plan on the basis of potential noise and disturbance to neighbours and residents of the care home, as well as the possible volume of traffic in would create. They said the business would be more suited to an industrial estate.

■ MAMMOTH COLLECTION . . . Ann Taylor with some of the trinkets.

Picture: Alex Weatherill 501970.

Just a few of my favourite things . . .

MOST people collect something, but few of us can boast a larger collection or a more varied one than Ann Taylor.

Crammed into her tiny flat in Leather Lane, Haverhill, there are, she estimates, 32,000 items which she has gathered over the past 18 years.

The collection includes key rings, teddies and soft toys, teapots, stickers, videos and ornaments. Every wall surface is covered, including her fridge, microwave, her bedroom and even the bathroom and toilet.

Most of the items displayed in her home cost very small amounts of money, many gleaned from charity shops in Haverhill, Cambridge, Ely and Newmarket.

Miss Taylor, 55, started off with a small rabbit teddy which was given to her as a gift and has never looked back. She has suffered from health problems which mean she cannot walk too far, so she spends a lot of time in her home, surrounded by her treasures.

She said: "It is just a hobby, but I really enjoy it. People have brought me things back from holiday and some of the older key rings you cannot buy any more.

"They know me at a lot of the shops in Cambridge. They call me the key ring lady and they keep things they think I would be interested in.

"In my will I am going to donate it all to the RSPCA. I used to let people come in to see it, but I had some things stolen, so I don't any more."

Ann keeps her tiny home spotlessly clean and spends many hours dusting and polishing all her collection and knows exactly where they all are and even has some of her key rings hung in sections, with rows of tiny guns, football boots, beer logos and other particular types. She also has a whole section of trolls, which many people collected in the 1960s.

Police plea for more help over sex attack

POLICE have released details of a number of people they would like to speak to as the hunt continues for a sex attacker.

The man pounced on two 12-year-old girls in a daytime attack two weeks ago. One 12 year old was sexually assaulted and the other ran away after a man grabbed them from behind near the Railway Walk in Haverhill on Thursday, July 24.

New information was received following checks a week after the attack, when almost 100 people were spoken to around the area where the attack happened.

Police have released details of a number of people seen in the area who may be able to help piece together the events leading up to the attack.

Those officers are looking to trace include: a woman walking a black dog, similar to a Labrador but smaller – the girls smiled at her and then patted the dog; a woman with a baby buggy; and two children – a boy riding a red bike and a girl on a pink bike with stabilisers, who were with a woman with brown, straight shoulder-length hair, of slim build, and possibly also on a bike.

Police would also like to speak to three teenage boys aged 14-15 years old dressed in jeans and trainers. One of the boys had spiky brown hair and was wearing a dark blue hooded top and trainers.

Acting Detective Inspector Trevor Prior, from Suffolk police's major investigation team, said the girls passed several people as they walked along the line.

■ SUSPECT . . . police have released this E-fit of a man they want to talk to in connection with the attack.

"It is important that we identify and speak to these people, as they may hold important information which could assist this inquiry.

"Some of the people using the path that afternoon have come forward, but we want to speak to every person who was walking or cycling in that area to piece together a timeline of events.

"Even if you aren't one of these people, if you were using the old railway line between 1pm and 2.30pm and haven't yet spoken to an officer, I would urge you to come forward.

"Something you saw that you may feel is insignificant may help identify the offender, or someone else who may be able to help."

The girl who was seriously sexually assaulted has received counselling after her ordeal.

The offender is described as a white male, in his 20s or 30s, 6ft tall and of slim to medium build, with short dark hair. He was wearing sunglasses, blue jeans, a white t-shirt and trainers.

Anyone with any information should call Suffolk Police on (01473) 613500 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Lost letter anger

"I wrote back to say that I was very disappointed, not only with their decision, but the fact that they did not answer any of the points we raised.

"I was astounded when the letter was returned marked 'could not be delivered'. I think one has to wonder about the efficiency of the Post Office if it cannot even deliver letters to itself.

"It would be nice if they were at least to give a decent answer to the valid points that were raised."

Steam stars of yore on show

GIANTS of steam from days gone by helped attract visitors to the annual Thurlow and Haverhill Steam and Country Show held at Horseheath Racecourse at the weekend.

This year's event was dedicated to the memory of long-term organiser Don Loveday, who died last year, with committee members Michael and Robert Purnfrey taking over the reins to keep the event going. Star attractions included David Seemark and his sheepdogs on Saturday and the Glen Moriston Pipe Band on Sunday.

About 25 full-size engines were on view, as well as vans, tractors, models, miniatures and lorries.

There were also helicopter rides, craft stalls, bygoness, trade stands, steam organs, a fun fair and a steam wood cutting demonstration. Organisers expect the event to raise a healthy profit for local charities.

New challenges for bright youngsters

GIFTED and talented middle school pupils spent part of their holiday at their future upper school for a summer school. The 10-day event took place at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College in Haverhill, with 75 pupils in Years 6, 7 & 8 and 9 attending from Chalkstone, Parkway, Castle Hill and Clare middle schools, along with eight pupils from

Years 9 and 10 as team leaders.

The event involved team building, meeting new people, filming in and around Haverhill, film editing, and creating DVDs, CDs for the local community and businesses to use as marketing tools.

The youngsters also created dance routines and made music with Boomwackers.

They spent a day in London taking in the V&A museum to look at design, history of various countries and the 3D IMAX cinema.

A spokesman for the school said: "For some of the pupils it was their first time in London, so this was very exciting - seeing all the famous landmarks, Big Ben, St Paul's Cathedral, the London Eye and the Tower of London. Both pupils and staff had a great time experimenting and challenging themselves to new experiences."

Leaders to meet over safety plan for A1307

THE future of a notorious stretch of road will be discussed at a road safety summit next week.

Cambridgeshire South East MP Jim Paice has invited council and police chiefs to the meeting to discuss a long-term strategy for the A1307.

Mr Paice said short-term strategies, such as Cambridgeshire Highways' plans to reduce the speed limit from 60mph to 50mph on a stretch of the road and install a speed camera, are not good enough.

These plans went out to consultation last Thursday, but Mr Paice said: "We want to look at the entire stretch of road, not just picking up bits here and there."

"The speed limit should be reduced for the entire road, not just the occasional stretch of tarmac."

"I want to see 50mph on the entire stretch of road, even the dual carriageways, but what matters most is enforcement by the council and the police to try to cut down on this cata-

BY Damion Roberts

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"Of the accidents that take place on the road, not many are down to speeding. They are down to careless driving, and that is something enforcement teams have to look into."

Asked what he hoped to achieve from the summit, Mr Paice said: "I'm not going to speculate on the outcome of this meeting except to say that the idea is to get everyone in a room talking and to come to some sort of consensus. I will be taking a few ideas into the meeting myself, but it's important that we try to agree an action plan for the future."

The A1307 has come under the spotlight due to a number of high-profile fatalities, the latest being the deaths of David Bocking, 43, and his two teenage sons Daniel and Stephen, in a head-on collision in July.

Cambridgeshire County Councillor Matt Bradney, the cabinet member for growth and infrastructure, has said

Cllr Bradney said: "I will be doing everything I can to make sure measures to reduce deaths on this road are put in place as a matter of urgency."

Statutory legal notices are being advertised to draw people's attention to plans to reduce the limit from 60mph to 50mph along the single carriageway stretch between Linton village and the dual carriageway section to the south east.

The A1307 was the first road to be reviewed under new national speed limit guidelines and five stretches of the road were identified as potential spots where the limit could be reduced.

People have until August 22 to have their say, and if there are no objections the new speed limit could be in place by September.

The A1307 summit will take place next Wednesday from 3pm at Shire Hall, Cambridge, but is not open to the public.

Flags flying high for award-winning park

A HAVERHILL park is flying its Green Flag after been judged one of the best in the country.

The 30-acre East Town Park, managed by St Edmundsbury Borough Council, has won its first Green Flag, awarded by the Civic Trust.

Green Flags were first presented in 1996 to open spaces which are well managed and have achieved high recreational and environmental standards.

Lynsey Alexander, portfolio holder for culture and sport at the council, said: "We are very proud to receive this national award. East Town Park is an attractive area where people can relax and enjoy the outdoors.

"The judges were impressed with the support we receive from volunteers who have helped us to make many landscape and habitat improvements, for the benefit of the whole community."

As well as features such as the wildlife pond and play area, the park is a gateway to the wider countryside, with its links to other leisure attractions including a six-mile circular route and the Stour Valley Path.

■ BIG DAY ... St Edmundsbury Borough Council leader Cllr John Griffiths cuts the ribbon to officially open the new depot.
Picture: Alex Weatherill 501968.

Clean, green and 'ahead of its time'

HAVERHILL'S new £1.4 million "green" council depot has been officially opened.

Cllr John Griffiths, leader of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, cut the ribbon last Friday at the site in Homefield Road, just off the town's by-pass.

Only three days earlier, the 50 staff who will be based there had moved from their former depot off Reeds Lane, which has been sold to Tesco to form part of its new supermarket development. A substantial portion of the cash from the sale was used to fund the new depot.

Cllr Griffiths said: "St Edmundsbury is doing a huge amount in Haverhill at the moment that is very exciting, but this is one of those things you don't see, which is even more important."

"And it is on budget and on

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

time. It is a huge improvement for the 50 plus staff, it is good news for them and for Haverhill. It shows the council's commitment to Haverhill and to the environment."

Sandra Pell, corporate director of environment for the council, said: "This is really up there with the best of the best, the environmental impact of everything has been taken into account."

"It is unique and really ahead of its time in depot building with the environmental credentials it has got. We are very proud of it."

Fifty refuse, cleansing and landscape staff will work from the new depot, which was built on a brown field site and has been designed to be highly energy-efficient and sustainable to cut energy and carbon emissions.

The new structure features an air source heat pump to warm the building rather than using an oil-fired system and effective insulation will keep the interior at a comfortable temperature.

A rain water harvester will capture rain to use for washing refuse and street-cleansing vehicles based at the depot and provide water for sanitary facilities.

The site will also have a new environmental permit to store waste collected by the council so that vehicles will not need to make as many trips to recycling plants or landfill tips.

Peter Stevens, cabinet member responsible for the environment, said: "This building is a perfect example of St Edmundsbury leading the way in terms of saving energy."

Sat navs stolen in car attack spree

ANOTHER spate of damage to vehicles on the same night in Haverhill has been reported to police.

Between 4.30pm on Wednesday, July 30 and 11am the following day, seven incidents of vehicle crime occurred in the town at Crowland Road, Overchurch Close, Old Rope Walk, Castle Lane, Landseer Court and Horseshoe Lane.

Four vehicles had their windows smashed. The thieves then stole a satellite navigation system from one of the vehicles and a laptop from another.

Damage was also caused to locks on another two vehicles and another satellite navigation system was stolen from a vehicle which had been left unlocked.

A Suffolk police spokesman said: "This type of anti-social behaviour is not acceptable and will not be tolerated, and officers are keen to catch those responsible."

Police are keen to speak to anyone who was in any of these areas at the time or saw anyone acting suspiciously.

Anyone who has any information about any of these incidents should ring Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100.

Hunt for details after van raided

POLICE want to trace a woman who spoke to the owner of a van after its windows were smashed and a drill stolen from inside.

The incident happened on the Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, between 10.30pm on Thursday, July 17 and 4.30am the following morning.

Offenders broke into a blue Peugeot Expert van by smashing windows.

Police want to speak to the woman who spoke to the van's owner following the incident. She claimed to have seen youths in the area earlier that morning and she may hold important information about the crime.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Matthew Dale at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

■ SPECIAL GATHERING . . . family members were on hand to help Olive Taylor, below, celebrate her 100th birthday.

Pictures: Keith Heppell 500369/80.

Family reunion marks a century

A GREAT, great, great grandmother, who has lived in the same Cambridgeshire village all her life, has celebrated her 100th birthday with a party in its hall. Olive Taylor was joined by 65 members of her family, which includes no fewer than 28 grandchildren, more than 30 great-grandchildren and several great, great grandchildren, for the party at Weston Colville. Mrs Taylor, who has been a widow for many years, had four children but two of them have passed away. She came from a big family and was one of seven children herself. Granddaughter Maria Wright said her grandmother was still quite healthy, although she could not hear so well these days. She said: "She is still in her own home. She has carers who come three times a day and we all help look after her. "I am sure if she had gone into a residential home she would have given up a long time ago. "She is quite happy in her own home. "She is not quite as able as she was, but she has still got it all up top and she can still tell us what to do. "She can sit and tell you about the war and all sorts of stories from then and how she lost a brother. "She still eats well and watches the television, although she cannot hear it very well, but I am sure the neighbours can."

High hopes for new blood at football club

LARRY Billings may not be a name familiar to everyone in Haverhill, but the new Rovers manager is looking to lift the Hamlet Croft club onwards and upwards when the Ridgeons League, Premier Division season kicks off on Saturday.

The new boss is one of many changes for the Suffolk club, who lost long-time captain Marcus Hunt to AFC Sudbury over the summer as many players decided to fly the nest.

But Billings has been busy bringing in new blood like Jim Hollingsworth, Craig Cutts and Sam Holmes to bolster the squad in his biggest managerial test so far.

Haverhill finished 10th last season in their first campaign back in the Premier Division and enjoyed another good run in the FA Cup for the second season running where they made it to the Second Round Qualifying.

So the boss is going to have his work cut out for him to emulate and surpass the achievements of last term.

Haverhill open up with about as hard a fixture as there is when they travel to 2007-08 Premier Division runners-up Needham Market on August 9 before welcoming the previous season's second-placed side Mildenhall in a derby clash at Hamlet Croft.

However, Billings is confident he can improve the club's position come the end of his first season in charge.

He said: "Ninth place would be the early aim as it is an improvement on last season. I think with the quality we have, we can carry ourselves well."

■ LINE-UP . . . The Rovers' reserve team and the U18 team are optimistic about the future under their new coach.

President Terry McGerty added: "The club would like to thank the Weekly News and all our sponsors - IFF which sponsors the first team, The Haverhill Business Park which sponsors the reserve team and the Under-18 squad.

"We're feeling optimistic about the new season, the team is now made up of a lot of local players and the friendlies have been looking good."

A History of Haverhill Rovers is available to buy on match days or from Print Wise reception, Homefield Road, Haverhill on week days. The book is priced £6.

Awards shortlist joy for new health club

THE eatery at a new health club and spa is flying the flag for west Suffolk after being shortlisted for a county award.

The Café Restaurant at Atlantic Health and Spa, between Cavendish and Clare, has been shortlisted as the best informal dining venue of the year in the Suffolk Food and Drink Awards.

Atlantic director Rob Wisse said: "Food establishments in the west of the county are doing just as much as those along the more fashionable coast. We're particularly delighted to have been shortlisted in our first year of operation."

The restaurant and courtyard, which is open to everyone, is located at the health club and day spa which opened last year at Houghton Hall farm in converted 15th Century barns.

The club and café are located on the Stour Valley footpath between Cavendish and Clare.

Members of the public can vote for their favourite shortlisted restaurants and pubs and the three candidates with the most votes will be judged and the winners announced in the autumn.

Voting, which closes tomorrow, can be done online at www.suffolkmagazine.co.uk

Choir's call to join sing-along 'and live longer'

SINGING is not just fun, it can extend your life, according to a successful choir which is hoping to swell its ranks.

Europe's premier multi award-winning a capella barbershop chorus, the Cambridge Chord

Company, which features members from Haverhill, is running an eight-week Come and Sing course to introduce novices or regular singers to their brand of close harmony sound. Bob Croft, musical director of Cambridge Chord, said: "Singing is fun. Singing is social. Singing builds self-confidence. And singers live longer. We think more men should experience the joy and satisfaction of singing – so we are introducing a new course for men to do just that. In total it will be 12 hours of tuition, for only a £10 admin charge. What's more, it will be lots of fun – we guarantee it." The course starts on Thursday, September 18 at the Institute Hall, Great Abington near

Cambridge, and will run for eight weeks to November 6. It will cover basic and advanced vocal technique for choral singing. To find out more visit www.cambridgechordcompany.co.uk

Friends to tee off in memory of Vic

A LOCAL firm is organising a charity golf tournament in memory of a director who died from cancer.

The event, to be held at Haverhill Golf Club on Thursday, September 18, has been organised by colleagues and friends of Vic Dashwood at Bradnam Joinery in Rookwood Way, Haverhill, to raise funds in his name for Ward D9 at Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge.

They hope to raise enough money to buy two automated heart rate, blood pressure and temperature monitors.

Mr Dashwood was diagnosed with cancer last December and died in April this year, just a month before his 44th birthday.

His colleagues are inviting teams of two to take part in the event or to contribute by sponsoring a hole of donating cash or raffle prizes.

Bob Spittle, a director at Bardnam Joinery, said: "After enduring chemotherapy and radiotherapy and considerable pain, Vic was told that there was nothing else that could be done for him and was allowed to go home to die.

"Thanks to Ward D9 at Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge, where he was treated, he was sent home with all the equipment necessary to make his last few days as comfortable as possible."

Anyone who can help by taking part in the golf day, sponsorship or donations should contact Bob or Jo on (01440) 761404.

New first aiders

The youngsters recently completed lessons to earn their first aid badges with the Red Cross and received them from British Red Cross trainer Kate Homer, who is a trainer both in the local area and Yorkshire.

The Brownies meet at the Burton Centre at Haverhill Library in Camps Road on Tuesdays from 5.15-6.45pm during term time.

PCT's pledge on NHS dental care

BETTER access to dental services should be available to more people in Haverhill after new standards were drawn up to ensure that NHS treatment is more easily available.

Suffolk Primary Care Trust's (PCT) board has agreed to adopt a new standard which means an NHS dentist should be available within a 12-mile radius of all rural homes. This is a reduction on the previous standard of 15 miles, and has been introduced after consultation with patient groups.

The PCT is also looking at the possibility of introducing a mobile service to reach those people living in smaller rural communities.

The standards are being introduced following a PCT pledge to invest £1.3 million in improving access to general dental services across Suffolk during 2008/09. A further £500,000 will be ploughed into orthodontic services.

Richard Ward, consultant in dental public health with the PCT, said: "We have been working hard to identify gaps in provision and are confident that these new standards will help to ensure even more people are able to access an NHS dentist."

"We will monitor performance carefully to make sure that these standards meet the needs of our population. Extra investment will also be made available if it is needed.

"We will also be considering what we have to do to make sure the public know how to access NHS dental services. Ensuring that NHS treatment is available to everyone who wants it is one of our priorities. This investment reflects the importance we place on it."

Currently, only 18 of the county's dental practices are accepting new NHS patients, 10 of which are in Ipswich.

Cash for holiday sports scheme

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

SWIMMING, football, street dance and tag rugby are among the free sporting activities available for young people in Haverhill during the summer holiday period, thanks to a new activity scheme funded by Havebury Housing Partnership.

This year's activities, for 10 to 19-year-olds, follow the success of a similar scheme run last year in partnership with Havebury, which has almost doubled its funding for the 2008 programme to £3,000.

Roger Bolton, chair of Havebury's Tenants' Forum, who lives in Haverhill, said: "The aim is to give young people in Haverhill something positive to do during the school holidays and there's a great choice of different sports and activities to get involved with and have some fun. There will be no excuse to get bored, which has in the past led to incidences of anti-social behaviour."

The day and evening sessions will run until September 3 in various locations across Haverhill.

Paul Knight, project worker for Positive Futures, which is running the sessions, said: "Getting involved with the programme has health and fitness benefits for the young people and we hope to see a really good turn out again this year."

For a full list of the summer activities on offer contact Havebury on 0845 123 851, visit Havebury's offices in Manor Road, Haverhill, or ring Haverhill Positive Futures on 07717 290572.

Entertainer's visit is just magic!

MOST children think their dads can do magic – but in the case of Rob Nicholas, he really can. Youngsters attending a holiday club run by Ketton Earlybirds pre-school group were spellbound by the tricks performed by the visiting dad, and even learned how to do some themselves. The children were visited by Mr Nicholas, a local amateur children's entertainer, on last week when he performed some tricks and taught them one to them. Throughout the week the children created magic props such as hats, wands and cloaks. They made up magic words and practised magic tricks and plate spinning. Last Friday, Mr Nicholas returned to perform another show, incorporating the children's tricks. Sarah Long, leader of the group, said: "They were absolutely mesmerised by his show and then really excited about doing some tricks themselves. They thoroughly enjoyed it." The holiday club is open from 8am-5.30pm on Monday to Friday until August 22 and some places are still available. A few places are also on offer with the group when the new term starts in September. For more information ring (01440) 709666.

Healthy ideas win support

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A PLAN to keep Suffolk residents as healthy as possible over the next two decades has been backed by local health chiefs.

Healthy Ambitions Suffolk, designed to improve well-being and reduce health inequalities across the county, has been supported by Suffolk Primary Care Trust's board.

The 20-year strategy aims to bring together a wide range of organisations to help improve the overall health and wellbeing of the county's residents.

Cutting the number of deaths from heart disease and cancer has already been highlighted as a top priority, along with reducing health inequalities, which currently see a 12.3 year difference in life expectancy in different parts of Suffolk.

Driven by Suffolk Strategic Partnership, the strategy will emphasise the measures which have a large impact, such as promoting walking and cycling and introducing health initiatives in work-places, homes and schools.

The strategy will also work to provide better access to more flexible healthcare and other public services, more information and education to help people manage their lifestyles and better integration between health and social care.

Dr Peter Bradley, director of public health for the PCT and Suffolk County Council, said: "Our aim is to make Suffolk the healthiest county in Britain by 2028 and this project, if it gets the right support, has the potential to help us reach that goal."

"Following endorsement from the PCT board, we will now be working closely with our partners to look at ways our healthy ambitions can be realised."

Healthy Ambitions Suffolk will be formally launched in November.

Plants That Grow

A COMPANY which has seen many changes including its name over more than half a century of trading is still run by the family of its founder.

The current name of 'Plants That Grow' was based on the good reputation the company ethos has always been based upon 'Affordable Quality'.

Other changes have included the business direction – from once being the biggest supplier in the UK for a major garden centre chain – to now supplying 30 local independents from farm shops to garage forecourts.

Spring 2008 saw another new branch of the business open – and consequently blossom – the new 'Nursery Shop' opened in May which sells everything from water butts to weed killers!

But not a family business to sit still, they are now making good use of the plentiful fertile soils and knowledge to grow and sell their own range of salads and vegetables.

The support from their customers has been rewarded with prices that are aimed below those of the supermarkets; in addition to customers having the firm knowledge that produce is 'fresh'. The shop is always growing and now is really proud to be stocking real 'local' produce.

They maintain "We are not a farm shop, our main business is always going to be plants. However, just because the label and packaging looks 'rustic' doesn't mean it is naturally or locally produced. Therefore we stock food from producers we know personally, who like us, take pride in what they do".

Their free range eggs are collected from a farm eight miles away and are £1.25 for six. Vinaigrettes, marmalades and chutneys at £3.29 come from just five miles away. They are always happy to receive enquiries from small local producers. For more information email sales@plantsthatgrow.com.

Buster's back and he's bringing Badfest

By Nik Shelton

Feast of jazz

JAZZ singer and pianist Julie McKee plays the Alimenter Restaurant on Hills Road, Cambridge, on Tuesday. The classically trained piano player's style has been described as a mix of Randy Newman and Tori Amos with the vocals of Annie Lennox. Her album What a Woman Shouldn't Do was released in June. The evening, which includes a three-course dinner, costs £35. Call (01223) 413000 to book.

Rock double

THERE'S a double bill of up and coming rockers at the Portland Arms, Cambridge, tomorrow. The jerky punk rhythms of Tellison will be going up against fellow Kingston trio Tubelord. The bands released a split single this week and Cambridge is the penultimate date on a tour which has seen them playing across the UK.

SKA troupe Bad Manners, fronted by nutty singer Buster Bloodvessel, headline the FordhamFest which runs from today to Sunday.

The festival, at Fordham near Newmarket, also features Hawkwind, Dr Feelgood, The Hamsters, Neville Staples, The Bluetones, Symarip, Chas and Dave and The James Taylor Quartet.

As well as offering up a host of well known bands and a variety of family entertainment the event is also a great way to support local charities as it hands over all its profits to good causes – this year the cash will be donated to the Teenage Cancer Trust.

Bad Manners, known for their 80's hits My Girl Lollipop, Lip Up Fatty and Special Brew, are now regulars at the festival. "We've done it for three years now," says Buster. "It's a very good festival, it's one of the ones I really look forward to every year. This year we're bringing Badfest to Fordham. It's a one day event on the Saturday with a lineup of Two Tone bands including us, The Beat and as many of The Specials as we could get." The band are one of the most hard working groups on the scene and have played hundreds of gigs each year across the UK and also go down a storm in Europe and the US. "We do more gigs than anyone I know," Buster boasts proudly. "We play festivals all over the world. We're off to Argentina and Japan and Prague later on in the year. We've just been offered a four-date festival tour in Serbia, we've just come back from Italy and Spain and Kiev.

"I love it, I still live for doing what we do. I just have so much fun and I know the crowds really enjoy it.

"We're not like most bands, we really get the crowd going. We're not a band who people stand around and applaud to, it's more a case of, let's get sweaty together!"

Tickets are £55. For details visit www.fordhamfest.co.uk

Incredible tales of heroes and love

BRING the kids along to the Haverhill Arts Centre next Wednesday for Alan in Wonderland and The Three Goats plus...

It's a fun family show, for children aged three and up, by Booster Cushion Theatre. Join a magical world, with a slice of Alice in Wonderland and a generous helping of goats. This comical show sees three goats coming to tea so be prepared for a puppet hare jumping, a flying fish tumbling and Alan arranging and re-arranging suitcases and finding a massive concertina book to tell his story with the aid of audience helpers. It's another cracker from this popular theatre group for kiddies and adults alike. It starts at 2.30pm.

There's a mix of films at the arts centre this week starting with spoof film Superhero Movie (12A) showing on Saturday 9 at 2.30pm and Monday at 11am. High school loser Rick Riker is bitten by a genetically-altered dragonfly and develops super abilities such as incredible strength and armoured skin. The Dragonfly decides to use his powers for good but standing in his way is uber-villain The Hourglass. It stars Drake Bell and Leslie Nielsen.

Keira Knightley, Sienna Miller and Cillian Murphy star in The Edge of Love (15) on Saturday and Tuesday at 7.45pm. This is a story of broken promises, passion and betrayal involving Caitlin, Vera, and the brilliant, charismatic poet Dylan Thomas. This is no means a bio-pic in the traditional vein - the story explores the intimate complexities of two young couples whose lives and loves become dangerously intertwined.

Speed Racer (PG), showing on Monday and Tuesday at 2.30pm, is about a young racing driver who takes on the mysterious Racer X in a gadget-loaded speed machine. Speed Racer is a born winner and believes that the only driver screenings on Monday, August 18 at 11am and 2.30pm, and Wednesday, August 20 at 11am and 7.45pm.

The novelty of outdoor cooking

THE latest trend in home improvements appears to be the outdoor kitchen.

For a number of years the outdoor, or garden kitchen, has been a hugely popular trend in many parts of Europe, and the US in particular.

Now with a sharp increase in UK sales over the past year it looks like Brits have chosen the outdoor kitchen as their next must-have addition to the stylish home in which entertaining is key.

One of the world's most highly-regarded brand's of outdoor kitchens is the Lexius collection from manufacturer

Newtrend.

Lexius outdoor kitchens are available in the UK from sole UK distributor Garden Kitchens (www.garden-kitchens.com).

These outdoor kitchens offer a grill that has been integrated into exclusively designed furniture.

The unit creates a practical place to cook and is provided with many conveniences, finished within a sleek modern design.

The grill itself is equipped with everything required for high level grilling, baking, cooking and stir-frying.

Cooking outside probably draws its appeal from the novelty of being away from the kitchen.

Eating and cooking out of doors provides a wonderful ambience and atmosphere in which the host may enjoy the party among the guests rather than being stuck in the kitchen away from all the fun.

The outdoor kitchen is now seen as a great addition to the home, and a sound investment that will add value to a property.

For further information on the Lexius range of outdoor kitchens and furniture, visit the UK distributor's website at www.garden-kitchens.com

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

MOTORING

Honestly, this is a Passat

JUST as the furore over the sexy new Scirocco dies down, another coupe from Volkswagen, the Passat CC, is launched with rather less fanfare.

The "CC" nomenclature led me to expect another folding hardtop but no, this is very much a grown-up coupe and it looks the part, with a brawny grace and stacks of presence. It is wider, longer and lower than the Passat saloon, despite sharing the same platform. This means excellent interior space for four adults, while the boot is a healthy size, with a capacity of 532 cubic litres.

The standard kit list includes pretty much all you could wish for, although the test car came with some extras, including touch-screen satnav/radio with a very decent Dynaudio sound system and a 30GB hard drive. Just two levels of trim are offered - CC as seen here and GT which adds 18-inch wheels, fogs, "silversprint" upholstery and Adaptive Chassis Control.

But whatever you opt for this is a very classy car inside and out, with top quality fit and finish and switchgear that would find itself quite at home in any Audi.

The engine range is also simple with two petrols and one diesel at launch, although this will expand to five, including a 3.6-litre V6 with 296bhp and 4MOTION four-wheel-drive. The 1.8-litre TSI unit makes 158bhp but, thanks to some light turbocharging the torque figure is a healthy 185lb ft, available from just 1,500rpm. It pulls smoothly and enthusiastically, punches above its weight, and never feels like it's struggling to deal with the CC's substantial (1530kg) mass.

The CC feels utterly smooth and genteel on the road, with a refined engine and impeccable road manners. Despite sports suspension and 17-inch rims, ride quality is a strong point and, combined with the excellent seats and driving position, help to make it a real long-distance specialist.

The chassis is certainly up to dealing with our bumpy back roads, offering plenty of grip and agility for such a big vehicle. Just don't expect a real driver's car along the lines of the Scirocco - it's a tad too laid back for that!

Basically...

If you are after something that is quick, comfortable, handsome and well built, the Passat CC ticks all the right boxes. Crucially it has no direct rivals and thus undercuts its nearest competitors by quite a margin. Volkswagen only expects to sell 2,500 of these cars in the UK for 2008, and by this reckoning that sounds perfectly achievable.

Your car might look nice, but is it safe to drive?

A SURVEY carried out on behalf of the STS Tyre Pros centre in Huntingdon found that we are a nation of car lovers, yet neglect them when it comes to maintenance.

Everyone surveyed said they remembered their first car with 61 per cent even admitting to naming it.

And 36 per cent of respondents also stated they have given their current car a name.

Ed Ison, centre manager at STS Tyre Pros in Huntingdon, says it is therefore surprising that people do not check their cars often enough to ensure they are safe. He says: "Given the sentimentality associated with the nation's vehicles, it is surprising that people do not make more effort to keep their cars in a safe condition."

"Just 20 per cent of people said they check their tyres for wear and tear, pressure or tread depth once a month or more, yet 25 per cent wash their car at least once a month."

"Although keeping a car clean and parked in a garage is important to keep it in optimum condition it is more important to ensure the tyres are legal and safe."

The centre on Stukeley Road is offering all motorists a free, no obligation tyre safety check.

Ison concludes: "At STS Tyre Pros we always take great care when carrying out work so motorists can rest assured their cars will be in safe hands and looked after, whether they have a name or not!"

Motorists can call into the centre any time Monday to Friday 8am to 6pm, Saturday 8am to 5pm or Sunday 9am to 3pm for a free tyre safety check.

For further information and centre locations, log on to www.stapletons-tyres.co.uk

Other tyre retail centres in the same area offering free, no obligation tyre safety checks include STS Stapleton's Tyre & Exhaust Centre, Orchard Road, Royston; and STS Holburn Tyre & Exhaust Centre, Lynn Street, Swaffham.

Children washing cars being underpaid by miserly parents

MISERLY mothers and fathers are paying their children well below the going rate for washing the family car, it was revealed this week. As many as 64 per cent of parents pay their offspring to wash vehicles and pay them an average of £5, according to a survey for the British International Motor Show. But those polled said they forked out an average of £15 when they had their car professionally cleaned.

And some parents pay their children as little as £1 as they say the youngsters only clean the outside of the car with soap and water. Getting a better deal are the children who make between £5 and £7 a time and also give the interior a thorough clean. Doing the best job, and getting the best rewards, are youngsters who get paid between £15 and £25 and who thoroughly wash, wax, buff, vacuum and polish the family motor.

IN THE LANDS TRIBUNAL LP/19/2008

IN THE MATTER OF SECTION 84 OF THE LAW OF PROPERTY ACT 1925 RESTRICTIVE COVENANT APPLICATION: PUBLICITY NOTICE

1. TAKE NOTICE that an application under section 84 of the Law of Property Act 1925 to discharge or modify a restrictive covenant affecting the land referred to below has been made to the Lands Tribunal. If you are legally entitled to the benefit of the covenant and you wish to object to the application, you should object within 28 days of the date of this notice.
2. The application relates to land at the rear of "Roskeen", Hill Crescent, Haverhill, which is registered at the Land Registry with Title Number SK268648, ("the Land").
3. The applicant is Andrew Spittle and Theresa Elizabeth Spittle, of 32, Mincepiece Close, Haverhill, Suffolk CB9 9NP.
4. The covenant, contained in a conveyance dated 12 July 1952 made between Clifford William Poole and Reginald Claud Poole (as "the Vendors") and Davidson Martin Graham (as "the Purchaser") in respect of which the application is made, contains the following restrictions (as relevant to this application):
2. There shall not be erected on the said plot of land more than one dwelling house of brick or stone or of a combination of such materials with the necessary outbuildings, garage, accommodation and greenhouses.
3. There shall not be erected or maintained on the said plot of land any single dwelling of an area inside the external walls of less than 850 feet super in the case of bungalows or 1,000 feet super in the case of houses excluding the area of a garage or greenhouse.
4. The plans of any building to be erected on the said plot of land shall be first submitted to and approved of by the Architect for the time being of the Vendors...
6. No building of any description other than a boundary wall or bay windows or porches shall be erected on or over any part of the said plot of land lying between the building line marked on the said plan annexed hereto and the road on the South side of such land.
7. The Purchaser shall lay out the gardens of any dwelling house to be erected on the said plot of land in a suitable and attractive manner and shall not use as a vegetable garden or for any other such purpose the ground lying in front of the dwelling house but shall lay out the same in lawns and/or flowerbeds and the Purchaser shall at all times hereafter keep the said gardens in a proper state of care and cultivation and shall not permit any unwholesome weeds or other obnoxious plants in the said gardens.
11. No outbuilding shed hut or any other similar erection of any kind being of a temporary nature shall be built or placed on any part of the said plot of land without the consent in writing of the Vendors for that purpose first had and obtained.
15. The Purchaser shall not do or suffer to be done upon the said plot of land or upon any dwelling house which may be erected thereon anything which shall in any way constitute a nuisance, annoyance, inconvenience or danger to the owner or occupier of any adjoining or adjacent property.

5A. The application seeks the discharge of the restriction on the following grounds:

- (a) That the restriction ought to be deemed obsolete;
- (aa) That unless modified the covenant would impede the use of the land for erecting and obtaining access to a dwelling house and garage on the Land, in accordance with planning permission granted by St Edmundsbury Borough Council under number SE/05/0288; that such use is a reasonable use; that in imposing that use the restriction does not secure to the persons entitled to the benefit of it any practical benefits of substantial value or advantage; and that money will be an adequate compensation for the loss or disadvantage (if any) which any such person will suffer from the discharge;
- (b) That the persons of full age and capacity entitled to the benefit of the restriction have agreed, expressly or by implication, by their acts or omissions to the discharge of the restriction;
- (c) That the proposed discharge will not injure the persons entitled to the benefit of the restriction.

5B. The application seeks the modification of the restriction so as to permit the erection of and obtaining access to a dwelling house and garage on the Land, in accordance with planning permission granted by St Edmundsbury Borough Council under number SE/05/0288. Modification is sought on the following grounds:

- (a) That the restriction ought to be deemed obsolete;
- (aa) That unless modified the covenant would impede the use of the land for erecting and obtaining access to a dwelling house and garage on the Land, in accordance with planning permission granted by St Edmundsbury Borough Council under number SE/05/0288; that such use is a reasonable use; that in imposing that use the restriction does not secure to the persons entitled to the benefit of it any practical benefits of substantial value or advantage; and that money will be an adequate compensation for the loss or disadvantage (if any) which any such person will suffer from the modification;
- (b) That the persons of full age and capacity entitled to the benefit of the restriction have agreed, expressly or by implication, by their acts or omissions to the modification of the restrictions;
- (c) That the proposed modification will not injure the persons entitled to the benefit of the restriction.

6. You may inspect the application, plan and other documents at Chelfins, Cavendish House, 27a High Street, Haverhill, Suffolk, CB9 8AD (Tel: 01440 707076 Fax: 01440 713800, attention Samuel Cooke) during office working hours. A copying charge may be payable if copies are required.

7. If you are a person legally entitled to the benefit of the restrictive covenant and you wish to object to the application, either download a form of objection (Form LPD) from www.lands tribunal.gov.uk or request one from The Registrar, Lands Tribunal, Procession House, 55 Ludgate Hill, London EC4M 7JW (Tel: 020 7029 9780).

The form should be completed, signed and posted to the Tribunal within 28 days of the date of this notice and to the Applicant's solicitors within 28 days of the date of this notice.

8. Persons who lodge objections become parties to the case, and, provided they are entitled to object, they may appear at the hearing of the application, if there is one. In asking the Lands Tribunal to discharge or modify a restrictive covenant, the applicant may be seeking to have a property right removed from someone who is entitled to the benefit of that covenant. For this reason, successful objectors may normally expect to have their legal costs paid by the unsuccessful applicant. Likewise, although they will usually pay their own costs, unsuccessful objectors will not normally be ordered to pay the costs of successful applicants. However, an objector who acts unreasonably may be required to pay some or all of the applicant's costs if they behaved unreasonably in the course of the proceedings, in rejecting a reasonable offer to settle made by the applicant, or in objecting to the proposed change.

In support of the application, the applicant may rely on a lack of objections, or a failure on the part of any particular person to object.

You may wish to seek legal advice from a suitably qualified solicitor about these matters.

BECOME A MULTI-SKILLED ENERGY ASSESSOR
By law trained Energy Assessors will need to carry out an estimated 3 million Energy Assessments in the year from this October - 200,000 commercial buildings, 1.8 million homes being rented and 1.1 million being sold (2.1m in normal house sale years).
Applicants are therefore required to train now - no previous surveying experience is required - at our London, Bristol, Birmingham and Manchester training centres which are approved by the Government-appointed Awarding Body for the Built Environment. The subsidised training is taken in separately bookable 1-week modules usually around current commitments and you qualify as a multi-skilled Domestic and Commercial Energy Assessor, Flood Risk Assessor and Home Inspector.
Homes now being sold already require Assessments with average fees of £70 being paid to our Assessors - fees for the 1.8m rented homes from October are expected to be similar. Fees for currently optional Home Inspections average £250 - commercial Assessments are expected to be higher. Up to 15 domestic Assessments or 6 commercial Assessments or Home Inspections are estimated to be carried out in a week, subject to size of properties and supply. As well as thousands of Assessors carrying out Energy Assessments, 7500 Home Inspectors will be needed upon Government making Home Inspections compulsory - less than a thousand are currently certified.
Regardless of the 'credit crunch' these new 'green' laws and 3 million Assessments are creating a rapidly expanding new industry which you could join, subject to interview and Aptitude test. So apply now for subsidised training and to start a new career carrying out this environmentally important work with potential multiple income stream opportunities.

CRICKET: ADAMS HARRISON MIDWEEK LEAGUE

Haverhill sense safety, but lose to champions

HAVERHILL and Weston Colville both fell victim to Babraham, who retained the the Division One title.

Jon Woodgate took 4 for 12 to limit Colville to 112 for 5 with runs from Arvid Patel (26), Alex Meddle (33 not out) and Chris Glover (38 not out).

Tom McNulty then smashed 54 in a successful Babraham chase of 116 for 5.

And an eighth win in a row against Haverhill was enough to see Babraham named champions again. Babraham made 132 for 2 through Woodgate (61) and McNulty (43).

Morrison then wrapped the title up with 3 for 18 to hold Haverhill to 95 for 5.

Haverhill had already taken a massive step towards safety after beating Horseheath by 13 runs.

Dan Poole (35), Dave Goodwin (27) got the runs in Haverhill's score of 153 for 6. Adam Dellar then steamed in for 5 for 33 to limit Horseheath to 140 for 7, despite good knocks from Dan Goldsmith (50) and Marcus Jarman (45).

Neil Winters' 64 and an unbeaten 33 from Chris Raynor were not enough to see Helions Bumpstead beat Abington as they slipped out of Division One.

Batting first, Bumpstead made 141 for 4, but Simon Bishop cracked off an undefeated 105 to relegate the visitors as the hosts replied with 144 for 1.

Jamie Millership guided Ashdon to a 42-run victory over Long Melford to dent their Division Two title hopes. Millership made 43 to go with David Hall's 34 in an Ashdon total of 161 for 6. Eric Holden then picked up 3 for 29 to reduce Melford to 119 for 9.

Sawston took over as Division Two favourites thanks to a 33-run win over Brockley.

Wes Potchul (48), Martin Heginbotham (52 not out) and Jonathon Davies (28) got the runs for Sawston in a score of 174 for 2, before Brockley were pegged back to 141 for 7.

In Division 3A, Wrattling Lions finished up a good campaign by beating Hundon by 24 runs to finish second.

Russell Davis' 54 and 34 from Steve Bowes gave Lions a score of 146 for 6 before limiting the visitors to 122 for 3.

Abington II suffered a narrow four-run loss to new Division 3B champions Mill Green in the final match of the season. Abington made 107 for 8, but Mill Green eclipsed that with 111 for 5.

Babraham II finished off in style, defeating Weston Colville II by 10 wickets.

Alex Thompson led the Colville charge with 25, but half tons from openers Charles Shannon (58 not out) and Chris Mellings (53 not out) saw Babraham home with 118 without loss.

■ ABINGTON II wrestled the League Cup off holders Ashdon with a thrilling three-run final win.

Harry Randall top-scored for Abington with 29 in a total of 114 for 9, as Mark Collins ripped his way through the order to claim 5 for 38.

Jamie Millership (36) and Michael Furze (30) did their best for last season's winners, but Greg Wagstaff finished with 3 for 25 to hold them off to 111 for 8.

GOLF

Great Scott to the fore

THE Seniors' Championship at Haverhill Golf Club attracted 55 competitors to the Coups Road course and featured both scratch and handicap sections.

Playing conditions were ideal, but just two players in the scratch event managed scores in the 70s – Gerry Scott (75) and defending champion Dennis Harkness (79), while long-time frontrunner Gordon Price finished on 80.

The handicap competition was a little more competitive with 11 players returning cards of even par or better.

Countback came into force to decide the top places as three finished on 68 and Geoff Dorkins was declared the winner from Syd Gould and Geoff Bush.

■ Results of the mid-week IFF Challenge:

■ A Haverhill mixed team lost at Giron 4½-2½, but Seckford were beaten at home, while the seniors enjoyed a 4½-3½ victory at home to Royston.

■ Haverhill's semi-final match against Woodbridge in the Parks Trophy will be contested at the Bury St Edmunds Golf Club today.

Captain Jim Walker has the luxury of selection from his strongest squad as several players have returned from holiday and other commitments.

MARTIAL ARTS

Mark and Les make club history

TWO students of the Haverhill-based Chalkstone Karate Club have recently gained their first dan (shodan) black belts after years of dedicated training.

The duo – Mark Ashwood, aged 25, and 46-year-old Les Atkins are the first students of the club in 16 years to achieve this level and only the second and third in its 25-year history.

Ashwood has been training for 15 years, but took time out for university, while Atkins has been training for eight years.

Both had to travel to London to take the exam in front of the head of the Toyakwai Karate Association, a 7th dan black belt.

Steve Hart, from the club, said: "We are only a small club so this has been a real milestone for us. My former instructor, Steve Collyer, has helped me to prepare Mark and Les for their exam."

The club meets on Tuesdays, from 7 to 9 pm at the Chalkstone

Community Centre, Strabour Square, Haverhill.

For further details, telephone 07747 063981 or email: chalkstonekarate@googlemail.com

■ ACHIEVEMENT . . . Les Atkins, left, and Mark Ashwood proudly show their certificates after passing their examinations to gain their first dan (shodan) black belts.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Hawks have their eyes on new talent

HUNDON Hawks Youth FC are seeking new players.

The club run teams at five age groups, from under-nines to under-16.

They are currently looking for players to bolster their squads at under-nine (school Year 4), under-10 (Year 5), under-12 (Year 7) and under-14 (Year 9) levels. Anyone interested should telephone Mike White on 01440 786735.

■ WEST Wrattling Youth Football Club held an invitation fun day with the slogan "Friendship and Enjoyment".

Teams from Waterbeach Colts, Cherry Hinton Lions, Granplan Gunners and Saffron Walden Town were invited to play their part. With nearly 400 people in attendance, the event was in four parts – a soccer match, American-style penalties, penalty shootout and crossbar challenge. Each visiting team was presented with a commemorative pennant and an award for their player of the match.

Despite the weather, the event, combined with the prize draw, raised £2,700 for WWYFC funds.

CRICKET ROUND-UP

■ IN THE RUNS...
Weston Colville's
Arvid Gunderson,
who struck 65.

Gunderson, Glover and Meddle set up Weston for victory

WESTON Colville's big-hitters were out in force to claim a 71-run win over relegation-threatened Bluntisham in their Tucker Gardner Cambs & Hunts Premier League, Division Two clash on Saturday. Trevor Westley opened with 28, but Arvid Gunderson (65), Mike Glover (61) and Alex Meddle (56 not out) followed to put the hosts on 255 for 6.

Weston captain Adie Westley then took the bowling honours with 5 for 35 to dismiss Bluntisham for 184. Howard Mathson did his best to keep Bluntisham in it with 46 and Alan Potter made an undefeated 33 late on, but even with a revised target of 229 they fell short.

■ HAVERHILL were beaten away to Brightlingsea by 55 runs in Division Two of the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship on Saturday. Batting first, the home side amassed a formidable 253 for 6 off their allotted overs. In reply, Haverhill were all out for 198, taking seven points to their opponents' 20.

■ HORSEHEATH had Dan Goldsmith batting lower down the order than normal and struck a crucial 81 as his team overcame St Ives for the first time. The losing side posted 225 all out, with Robbie Ketteridge taking four wickets. And, although Horseheath lost Martin Giles early on, Mick Ketteridge made 30 and Goldsmith notched a half-century to steer them to 227 for 7 with a couple of overs to spare.

SWIMMING

Biller on form with third spot

STEFANIE Biller, above, finished third in the latest round of the World Marathon Swimming Grand Prix Series in Canada.

The Haverhill-based swimmer completed the gruelling 32km course at Lac St Jean in a time of 8hr 40min 53sec, just over four minutes adrift of winner Natalya Pankina of Russia.

But the West Suffolk swimmer won the sprint event, based on each competitor's time over the final 400 metres of the race, with Germany team-mate Annegret Braun runner-up and Australia's Shelley Clarke third.

Coach Alan Bircher said: "The conditions did not suit the swimmers at all. It is known as one of the hardest in open water, and to then wake up and see four-foot waves didn't help."

"Steffi battled hard all day and at one point looked to be really struggling to pull through, but she managed third – an excellent finish for her first attempt at the competition."

FOOTBALL: ROVERS ALL SET FOR NEW RIDGEONS LEAGUE CAMPAIGN

Larry can't wait to get ball rolling

LARRY Billings' new-look locally-sourced Haverhill Rovers warmed up for the Ridgeons League, Premier Division opener on Saturday with a 1-0 win over Stowupland Falcons in their final pre-season fixture on Tuesday.

Neil Hammond netted midway through the second half to bring the curtain down on the friendly games, which finished with Rovers only losing one out of five matches.

But Billings, who was named as the new boss at Hamlet Croft at the start of the summer, knows it will be a different kettle of fish when they travel to last term's Premier Division runners-up Needham Market on Saturday.

The new manager said: "It was raining all through the game on Tuesday night, so like Mastermind we had already started so we finished, but it is always good to take a win into the start of the league season."

"We've only had one defeat in five friendlies, so we're looking good. We just need to go on from that now."

"Matt Crawley impressed last night, but everyone will be pushing for a place in the first game on Saturday."

"We've got two very tough games to start – away to Needham Market then at home to Mildenhall on Tuesday evening."

"But if we come through we'll be in good shape."

Haverhill will go into the season's opener without captain Paul Abbott, who is still struggling with a leg-break sustained two seasons ago, and Shaun Banham had an operation in the closed season and is still recovering.

Rovers finished 10th in the first campaign back in the Premier Division mainly under Steve Taylor, who quit in the new year and was replaced by Marcus Hunt as player-caretaker manager before he too moved on to AFC Sudbury at the end of the season.

Since his appointment, Billings has worked hard to get local lads back among the ranks at Hamlet Croft, which he hopes will improve team spirit.

The boss added: "I have made sure we're a local side again and the camaraderie is good. Hopefully, that means the town will get behind us and more people will come and watch us play."

■ ON TARGET... Neil Hammond, who hit Rovers' goal against Stowupland Falcons.
